How To Work With Me

A little guide to help you understand how I approach my work and collaboration.

your future teammate

Florian LEPLAT

28 years old

From Paris, FR

Living in Lisbon, PT

Hobbies: taking care of animals, long walks in the nature, playing video games

Sports : climbing, cycling, skateboard, surf

Work that GIVES me energy

UX/UI designer with a strong graphic design background, I combine visual storytelling with a strategic understanding of product identity, business goals and user needs. Comfortable working collaboratively within international teams, I'm equally effective working independently. I enjoy breaking down complex problems into smaller steps to explore different approaches, structure my thinking and develop thoughtful solutions.
